STOCK COMPANY "LEAD" ADDED TO PROGRAM

Miss Pearl Evans Lewis Will Entertain at Press Club Dinner.

The name of Miss Pearl Evans Lewis, leading lady of the new stock company at the Oliver opera house, was added to the list today of professionals now playing in the city, who will appear in the South Bend Press club's cabaret and dinner at the Oliver hotel Monday night. It will be Miss Lewis' first opportunity to get acquainted with South Bend folks.

Besides Miss Lewis, the list of professionals appearing locally who will take part in the newspaper folks' entertainment, include "The Great Howard," a famous ventriloquist; Eddie Burns, Eddie Raye and Miss Helen Brandon. The ventriloquist is one of the best of his kind and will be at the Orpheum theater next week. Miss Brandon and Mr. Raye will do a turn at the piano and Eddie Burns will be heard in popular songs. They are from the Majestic.

In addition, the program mentions a number of famous entertainers and public figures from outside of South Bend. More or less mystery has been thrown about this portion of the entertainment by the club's press agent.

The "S. B. O." sign went up today over the door of the red room at the Oliver hotel for Monday night. Here is where the press club's cabaret and dinner is to be given.

The party had been extended from about 75 persons to more than 100 and the limit was placed on the attendance at around 115. An unusual demand for tickets to the affair within the past few hours, compelled committees in charge to limit the number still to be passed out.

The banquet will be served promptly at 6:30 o'clock. After dinner, Press' Irvin Dolk will introduce Frank E. Hering, editor of the Eagle magazine.
